A rare opportunity has arisen for the Asia-Pacific region and the world

A new Vipassana long-course centre

Called...

DHAMMA RASA

Now your help is needed

A rare opportunity has arisen to purchase a property for a new Vipassana long-course centre, located right next to Dhamma Rasmi in Queensland.

Already given the name Dhamma Rasa (Nectar of Dhamma), this will be the first dedicated long-course centre in the southern hemisphere and the second in the West; serving the Asia-Pacific region and the world.

A Dhamma Trust has been formed and a contract to purchase the land for A$2.2 million has been signed; now help is needed to make Dhamma Rasa a reality.

Donations and loans are needed to help secure this rare opportunity and purchase this property. All donations are tax deductible.

To make a donation, offer a loan or find out more about supporting Dhamma Rasa, please visit the website or scan the QR Code above: dhammarasa.org

Send an email to info@dhammarasa.org or call (61) 0406-611-830 or (61) 0432 180 102

All donations are tax deductible for Australian residents. US residents can also receive a tax deduction by donating via Vipassana Charitable Foundation.
